Minutes from March were accepted

Ed advised that the Worcester Sharks would like to have a 2 year contract with Baystate. This would include the Worcester Sharks helping with fundraising events. We have some questions on the 2 tickets per player. Do they need to on a specific night or can they be flex.

Ed will bring the information back to the Worcester Sharks.

Larry advised that our 2nd annual Golf Tournament is scheduled.

Denise had brought the financial records to Don prior to the meeting.

All tryouts have been scheduled with the last tryout being on April 19th for the Peewees

We are asking for Evaluators and on Ice personal. Scott will send an email to all coaches.

We will meet on April 29th for the May meeting so we can go over the evaluations and setup the teams for next year.

Baystate has done well in the playoffs this year.

Paul advised that he is obtaining pricing from Dave Crombie on the pricing for Jerseys. Paul also advised that all Jerseys will need to be paid in full prior to receiving this year.

We have not determined the cost of tuition this year due to we are not sure if the fees will be going up in Marlboro or Westboro.

We have received confirmation that ice time in Auburn will not be going up.

We will also discuss tuition for next year on April 29th. E

We have posted the Winners of the raffle on the board at the rink

Brandon Hamner was the highest seller for the raffle
