Minutes from August meeting accepted

Marina from the Worcester Sharks came to our board meeting. Marina explained the programs that are being offered to the Youth Hockey Programs. Programs will include games prior to a Worcester Sharks home game, intermission ice. The Worcester Sharks will be willing to participate in fundraising efforts.

Ed advised that he has a hockey night Schedule with the Worcester Sharks to come for an hour and us practice ice and then have another open house.

Ed had a suggestion that we purchase sharks teeth to have as promotional items

Ed suggested the t-shirts again. The board agreed on the t-shirts

Learn to play/skate program we are still in need of someone being the facilitator of the program

Lee Ann was going to talk to Don about getting our certificate of insurance to present to the rink.

Denise will be making letters for coached to give to parents in regards to outstanding balances for the season.

Denise advise that we should see if we can get one of the local papers to come to the Sharks night and to report about our learn to skate/play program

Chris Vigeant came to discuss the progress of the Golf Tournament. The coaches will have a discount to be apart of the golf tournament

Larry advise that we are receiving sponsors for each hole for the golf tournament

DJ brought up that we will need to register all members of the learn to play/skate with USA Hockey.

Larry asked the board if we will be willing to refund the $125.00 to Mr Lanier as one of his sons is not playing this year. This was denied due to the current by law stating that the registration fee was non refundable.

Denise will be emailing the email list to Scott and coaches so they will have a copy.

Denise mention that she still needed all forms for the bank to be filled out
